

In her Daddy's eyes – Joe Bradshaw – 4/98

Intro: C D Em D C G

Verse 1.1

G
Good ol boy, good ol girl
D
Living the American dream.
C
Gonna build a country family
G
When baby makes three.

Verse 1.2

G
Daddy holds her; he's so proud.
D
But, He wonders what he'll do now.
C
So, Daddy closes his eyes to think.
G
His little girl grew up in a wink.

Chorus

C
It's all about love.
D
It's all about soul.
Em
It's about when to hold her,
G
And when to let go.
C
It's what is wrong,
D
And what is right
Em
And when to come home
G
On a Saturday night
C D
It's saying' please, and thank you.
Em G
I'm sorry, and I love you too.
C D
It's when its time for her to realize
Em D C
The way she's loved
G
In her daddy's eyes.

Verse 2.1

G
His little girl is no longer little.
D
She's grown up so fast.
C
He's tried to teach her every lesson.
G
He prays they will last.

Verse 2.2

G
Now, she's sixteen and just can't wait.
D
He drops her off for her very first date.
C
He remembers back to his time,
G
And he knows her heart will be flying.

Chorus

Verse 3.1

G
He knew this day would be scary.
D
He gives her away to be married.
C
As she becomes another mans wife,
G
He prays he loves her with all of his life.

Verse 3.2

G
After the words have been said and done.
D
She finds her dad for a kiss and a hug,
C
And a spin on the dance floor.
G
You know she still loves him so.

Chorus
